GEORGIA—THE MAGNIFICANT DREAM "Where There Is No Vision, The People Perish"—and Georgia Lags

By Ruth Rebecca Franklin, Atlanta Journal Feature Writer

On February 12, the State of Georgia will observe her 213th birthday. This, then, seems a propitious time to appraise the development of the thirteenth colony, whose birth in 1733 was hailed as the greatest religious and philanthropic experiment of the day.

Two centuries is a long time, as men measure years, and judged by any yardstick, Georgia's progress has been slow. But recent years have brought advances that appear to herald a bright, new day—an era in which Georgia can lay legitimate claim to the proud title, Empire State of the South.

The colony of Georgia was a magnificent dream, unique among the British settlements in America. Its founders envisioned it as a haven for victims of religious persecution such as the Salzburgers and Moravians of Germany. They saw it as a grand charitable enterprise in life to British debtors "of prize that would bring a new reputable families, and of liberal or, at least, easy education." They believed it possessed extraordinary commercial possibilities.

In a measure, Georgia fulfilled these dreams. At the outbreak of the War Between the States she was, indeed, the Empire State of the South. That war did much to impede her progress, but undoubtedly the greatest single retarding factor has been the lack of intelligent, honest, progressive leadership. As it is recorded in Proverbs, "Where there is no vision, the people perish." And Georgia's men of vision, for the most part, have been more interested in their business and their professions than in government.

Thus we have seen Georgia trailing other states in the Union in education, health, industry and per capita income. And more recently, by reason of the Rivers and Talmadge regimes, we have seen Georgia become the subject of ridicule—much of it deserved. The old boast, "It's great to be a Georgian!" became "It grates to be a Georgian!"

The present state administration has done much to retrieve Georgia's reputation. But what is more important, it has helped the state. Georgia is out of debt for the first time in history. More money is being appropriated for education than ever before. Colleges and universities have been returned to the accredited listings. Prison reforms have been instituted.

New state agencies are working for the establishment of more industries, for the improvement of agriculture, and for the development of tourist trade. The outmoded state Constitution has been modernized. The Board of Regents, the Board of Education, the Pardon and Parole Board and the Board of Welfare have been made Constitutional bodies, so that no governor can molest them. And Governor Arnall continues to win ground in his fight for fair freight rates for the South.

Bulloch Goes To Polls March 6

Bulloch county will go to the polls on March 6 to elect a judge of City Court, a chairman and two members of the board of the county commissioners.

Those qualified at noon Tuesday are: for judge of City Court, Linton G. Lanier, incumbent; and Prince H. Preston, for chairman of county commissioners; Fred Hodges, incumbent; and John H. Olliff, for board members T. O. Wynn, incumbent; Clarence Hendrix, J. T. Martin, of Nevils, J. H. Bradley and J. D. Lanier.

Friday, February 1, was set by the Bulloch county democratic executive committee, as the qualifying deadline.

PRINCE PRESTON, WORLD WAR II VETERAN QUALIFIES FOR JUDGE RACE
Prince H. Preston, veteran of World War II has qualified as a candidate for judge of the City Court.

A former member of the General Assembly and a local attorney, Mr. Preston volunteered in the army in September, 1942. He received his basic training in Virginia and was commissioned a second lieutenant at Camp Davis in February, 1943. In February, 1944, he went overseas and as a captain commanded a battery of anti-aircraft artillery. He was awarded six combat stars on his European Area theatre ribbon. He was discharged from the Army in October, 1945.

He graduated at the University of Georgia in 1930. Active in local civic affairs, he is a member of the Chamber of Commerce and a member of the Baptist Church Choir, and a member of the Ogechee Lodge No. 213, Masons.

Statesboro May Get New 800-Seat Movie

It is understood that Statesboro may soon have another theatre. A site has been selected, plans for the building are under consideration, and equipment has been selected. It will house approximately 800 seats and be equipped with the modern sound and screen equipment.

STATESBORO DIRT BRINGS $57,000 ACRE

Land at $57,000 per acre is pretty high price dirt, even for Statesboro—and that same piece of dirt sold at $20 per acre 61 years ago.

Josh T. NeSmith in reminiscing over the sale of the Masonic lot says that the 54 by 105 foot lot consists of about one-eighth of an acre and is a part of a one-quarter acre lot which 61 years ago sold for $5. Sam Rosenberg bought the one-eighth of acre for $7,200. "At that rate the lot figures $57,600 per acre," says Josh.

The Herald Returns to Peace

The Bulloch Herald returns to peace! Today is a great day in our lives. Today we fulfilled our promise made on May 28, 1942, the day we suspended publication of the Bulloch Herald and went to war.

Today we give you the "new" Bulloch Herald.

It makes us happy to think about it. To us it means the beginning of many years of service to the people of Statesboro and Bulloch county.

It was nearly four years ago that we pledged our return to you. Four years filled with blood and death . . . filled with misery and homesickness . . . filled with desolation and loneliness . . .

Four years filled with worry. Worry about the future of our newspaper. Questions buzzed in our minds—will the people of Statesboro and Bulloch county remember the Bulloch Herald—what about our mailing permit—will we be given consideration for the county's legal advertising . . . will paper be hard to get . . . what about labor—all these things and more filled the years we were away.

Some of these worries have been cleared up already. That the people of Statesboro and Bulloch county are remembering us and are rallying around us is indicated in the advertising columns of this, our first issue and in our subscription list. Postmaster Arthur Turner informed us that our mailing permit was preserved for us. The Georgia Press Association told us that we maintained our eligibility to publish the legal advertising of the county, if the county officials should designate the Herald as the official organ for the county. We have been able to secure enough newsprint. We found a linotype operator.

And so with this issue the editors and publishers of the "new" Herald say: "Thanks, Statesboro and Bulloch county. Thank for receiving us with open arms and a big heart."

And to every mother and father, wife and sister, who sent a son, husband, brother, father to war we wish to say we know what he went through. We saw him hit enemy beaches under heavy fire . . . we saw him crouched in foxholes, we saw him moving forward in the face of concentrated enemy fire . . . we saw him in stinking quarters on troop transports . . . we saw him on patrol, ferreting out enemy resistance . . . we saw him enjoying your letter from home and a beat up piece of fruit cake you sent him for Christmas . . . we saw him help his fellow-fighter when the odds were rough . . . we saw him make the supreme sacrifice.

Know that you have every reason in the world to be standing-up-head-thrown-back proud of him.

Some of them did not come back. Know that in that split second in which he was about to die, he knew that he was not about to die in vain. We are convinced that God made him know that . . . that's why he died so bravely, if terribly . . . that's why you must be proud of him . . . that's why you must hold your head high.

That's why we pledge you a better Bulloch Herald . . . that is why we are more aware of the responsibility that that is ours as a newspaper.

And so the Bulloch Herald returns to peace.

The Herald Goes to War

Reprinted from the last issue of The Bulloch Herald published May 28, 1942.

The Bulloch Herald goes to war!

On or about June 15 the last of the three Coleman boys, owners, editors and publishers of the Bulloch Herald, will take his place in the ranks of the Army of the United States.

On June 19 of last year Jim Coleman, advertising director of the Herald was called into active service and is now stationed at Maxwell Field, Montgomery, Alabama. On May 4, G. C. Coleman, Jr., associate editor became a member of the Parachute Troops of the Army of the United States and is now stationed at Camp Wheeler at Macon. On May 8, Leodel Coleman, editor, was notified by the local board that his call was near. With their permission he volunteered for the Air Corps. On May 18 he passed his preliminary physical test and will leave about June 15.

And so the Bulloch Herald goes to war!

It makes us a little sad to think about it, for it means that we must close the Bulloch Herald for the duration.

For five years and two months, we three have poured all our time, all our energies, all our hearts into every issue of the Herald. Five years full of shadows and sunshine. Five years—tough going all the way up hill, but worth every step. In 1939 we bought our first printing equipment . . . and in that same year we enlarged our plant . . . 1940 saw our paper win five Georgia Press Association awards . . . 1941 saw our paper win four Georgia Press Association awards . . . 1939 saw our application for a share in the county's legal advertising turned down . . . saw Jim taken into the army . . . 1942 sees G. C., Jr., taken into the army and now us.

Our leaving sees five years and two months blow up in our faces. We lose our post office mailing permit. We lose our legal qualifications to apply for the legal advertising of the City and County.

But that is not the important thing!

There's a war going on! A war that must be won. A war that must be won by all of us . . . you and us and the man next door. Because we are all in this war, and because blood and tears and sweat don't mean a thing if they do not come from EVERYBODY. The Bulloch Herald had three men to offer and we gladly give all three.

And our only consolation in leaving is our hope that the people of Statesboro and Bulloch county will rally around us when we come back.

And come back we will—for we can't allow ourselves to think otherwise—there will be another Bulloch Herald. A brand new Bulloch Herald—in tune with the new times, just as it has remained in tune with the changing time for the past five years.

And so until we three return—Jim, "The Skipper," and Leodel—we say "hold 'em in the road and keep Bulloch county the county where 'nature smiles and progress has the right of way' and remember . . . there'll be another Bulloch Herald.

And now The Bulloch Herald goes to war!

Grand Jury Wants Sunday Show Out

The January Term, 1946, Grand Jury recommends that Sunday movies in Statesboro be closed.

In making its report to the court on Monday of this week the Grand Jury asked the Mayor and City Council of Statesboro to cooperate in closing the moving picture shows on Sundays.

The complete report is included in the following presentments:

GRAND JURY PRESENTMENTS JANUARY TERM, 1946

Judge Renfro Talks Common Sense In Charge

Judge J. L. Renfro, in charging the January term of Bulloch superior court, talked common sense language in telling them that society is now affected by two problems, "Derelict man and derelict land."

In making his charge he related the case of Shelby county, Tenn., where a county farm of 5,000 acres was purchased 16 years ago. "It was mostly waste land," said Judge Renfro. "But a man with courage was put at the head of the operation of the farm and now the place is valued at $2,500,000, including $125,000 worth of pure-blood cattle."

"Poor soil makes poor crops . . . poor crops make poor people, and poor people make poor health," he said. "We need to turn our attention more and more to diversification. Bulloch county started diversifying some years ago. And now for a balanced economy we must have processing plants."

Judge Renfro commended the state and county health departments for the progress made in promoting the good health of the people.

He presented a group of figures to the members of the grand jury indicating a lack of interest on the part of the people in the circuit in voting. "Of the 25,169 people in the four counties of voting age only 5,579 exercised their right to vote in the 1942 primary," he said. "Of the 13,436 in Bulloch county of voting age, only 2,830 voted."

He concluded his charge by asking the grand jurors, "How is the law being enforced in your district?" He then pointed out that there are a lot of violators of the law on Sundays in the county. "We need more public sentiment for law enforcement," he said.

Red Cross Drive Begins March 5

At a meeting of the Bulloch county chapter of the Red Cross held at the Jaekel Hotel Tuesday morning a quota for the 1946 drive was set at $4,500.

Remer Brady, chairman of the Bulloch county chapter, presided at the meeting. Billy Cone, chairman of the Red Cross drive scheduled for the ten days, March 5 to March 15, outlined plans for the campaign.

The drive will get under way at a supper to be given for the county committeemen on the evening of March 4 and a breakfast for the city committee on the morning of March 5.

Miss Ann Worthy Johnson, of Rome, Red Cross representative of the Atlanta office, met with the committee.

Others present were Mrs. Jessie Fletcher, Robert Donaldson, Leodel Coleman and D. B. Turner.

Dr. Storer, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Tulsa for fourteen years will be the speaker on the Baptist radio hour Sunday, February 10, at 8:30 a. m. EST. Dr. Storey will speak on "Freedom for All Men."

The Baptist House Choir will sing in the broadcast. The program can be heard in Georgia over radio stations in Atlanta, Macon and Savannah.

JACK TARVER

Claims Interest In Herald

Jack Tarver, Associate Editor The Atlanta Constitution

Dear Leodel:

It is with a great deal of interest that I note in the South's Standard Newspaper that the Bulloch Herald is back from the wars.

I feel a proprietary interest in the Herald, having been present the night the first issue, after many false starts, rolled off the press of Roscoe Ledford's Vidalia Advance. It was I must admit, with a feeling of condescension that I aided. Having been out of journalism school in Ledford's employ for at least two weeks, I knew enough about the business to feel sure that you were launching a hopeless cause. I admired you, in the way one admires human flies and professional parachute jumpers for your daring but I pitied you nonetheless for your lack of discretion.

Somewhere in the Georgia Press Association there may have been an experienced newspaperman who thought you'd make a go of the Herald, Leodel, but I never got around to meeting him.

The fact that you did make a success of it, a bigger success than

I guess even the impractical soul of you ever felt possible is attributable, I think, to your dogged determination and an uncommon feeling for the profession.

It took a lot of guts to keep the Herald going over these first grueling months. And it took a lot of guts, once the lean months were over and it looked like smooth sailing at last, to hang that sign on the door and go marching off to war.

I worried about the Coleman boys during the dark days. Not so much about Jim and G. C. Jr. The latter was young and tough and wiry. I figured he could take an Jim. I knew, could talk his way out of anything. It was you I felt for on cold, rainy nights, Leodel. You had no business in it. You were an old man to start with, as the Marines reckon age, and I knew there were plenty of times (Continued on Back Page)

MORGAN BLAKE WRITES

Feels Like Giving Three Cheers

By Morgan Blake

(Editor's Note: In a letter dated January 25 Morgan Blake of the Atlanta Journal wrote: "Dear Leodel, I am really thrilled to know that the old paper will soon be on the firing line again. God bless you and Jim." He enclosed the following column.)

I have always been a sentimental sort of cuss and I'm not ashamed of it. And I confess that when I heard that the Bulloch Herald "The Newspaper That Went to War" was to resume publication my emotions were stirred and I felt like rising and giving three rousing cheers.

It has been my good fortune to visit Statesboro on several occasions and the warm welcome accorded me there and the wonderful fellowship I have enjoyed with the fine people of this hustling and progressive little city will not only be a joyous memory but a constant urge to visit there again.

On my first visit to Statesboro the Bulloch Herald was in full blast and recognized as one of the best in the state. Its owners, publishers, editors, reporters, and copy boys were the Coleman Brothers, Leodel, Jim and G. C., Jr., young alert and progressive. Then came the war and the Bulloch Herald was one newspaper that literally enlisted 100 per cent. The brothers joined the armed forces and the paper suspended publication on May 28, 1942.

How thrilling it is to know that these brothers, now back from the wars, are now going to take up where they left off. The great experience they have been through qualifies them to make the Bulloch Herald an even better paper than it was before the war. The people of Statesboro and that section of Georgia are to be congratulated that this newspaper is to resume publication.

My best wishes go to Leodel and Jim as they get back into harness. I am confident they will stand foursquare for those great principles of democracy and clean and efficient government, and help keep our state in the forefront of the nation's Commonwealths.

TURKEY DINNER
Highlighting the social events of the week was the lovely dinner party Friday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Donaldson as hosts at their home on Zetteroway Ave.

The Valentine idea was carried out in the use of red and white carnations in the rooms and red hearts used to mark the places.

During the evening the guests engaged in Valentine contests. For ladies, Mrs. Percy Averitt won a heart-shaped box of candy and Mrs. Grady Attaway won a linen towel. For men, a tie went to Glenn Jennings and Grady Attaway received cigarettes.

Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Percy Averitt, Mr. and Mrs. Devane Watson, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Amason, Mr. and Mrs. Will Woodcock, Mr. and Mrs. Will Jennings, Mr. and Mrs. Loy Brannen, Mr. and Mrs. Grady Attaway, Dr. and Mrs. D. L. Davis, and Mr. and Mrs. Donaldson.

HOUSE PARTY AT GATES FARM

LOVELY PARTY
The approaching Valentine season furnished the decorative theme used for Mrs. J. H. Brett's party as she entertained the Tuesday Bridge Club Tuesday afternoon at her home on North Main street.

Narcissi and camellias adorned the rooms. Narcissi and narcissi in miniature cups centered the tables and baskets of Valentine confectios marked each place. Valentine tallies and red molded fruit salad accented the party motif.

For prizes Mrs. Brett gave a double deck of cards, a dainty handkerchief, and fancy soap.

The players were: Mesdames C. P. Olliff, Sr., Harvey Smith, Arthur Turner, Olive Smith, Frank Grimes, Alfred Dorman, Fred Smith, Bruce Olliff, Gordon Mays, J. O. Johnston, Inman Foy and Denn Anderson.

All's Fair

And gossiping Jane will get you if you don't watch out.

For the first time in nearly four years Jane emerges from seclusion and blinks her eyes, wipes off her specs, sharpens pencils, cleans the old typewriter and gets ready to bring the readers of the Bulloch Herald inconsequential bits of gossip, commendatory deeds, and odd or exciting bits of news not otherwise reported.

Editor Coleman flatters Jane by insisting that he looks with favor on her return to his paper, while Jane regards the reappearance of the Bulloch Herald as simply super.

Winnie Durden saved her last issue of the Bulloch Herald and as she put it away she remarked, "I wonder when the next issue will come out." Well, Winnie, here it is and we hope that you and other readers are very happy over its return.

Bridge clubs and other social activities disbanded for the duration are starting up again. Willie Dorman with some real butter on hand whipped up a cake and called the Tuesday Club out of kitchens, pantries and from fireplaces to play a game or two and thus the Tuesday Club was launched. The Hearts High Club formerly composed of 18 of our younger men and women at the time of its organization we called them (boys and girls) are all together again with the exception of Bob Morris, and their number has increased, due to several marriages among its members. The Three O'Clocks are meeting regularly and the Cotillion Club is functioning gracefully once more with tuxedos out of moth balls and lovely new evening gowns.

Sara Reid Hodges is seeing rainbows and stars these days. After a long vigil at the telephone, Julian's voice finally came quite clearly from a phone booth in Seattle, assuring her that he would be home in a few days. Alfred Merlo Suave knows definitely that Paul is on the way home, so she is diligently hunting an apartment. Ensign Bob Darby wired Sara Alice Saturday from San Diego and he is enroute to Charleston, S. C., where he will receive his discharge.

Tiny Ramsey's friends are delighted to know that he has been upped to Flotilla Commander with his base at Guam. Another promotion we note with pride is that of Major James Floyd Coleman to Lieut. Colonel. He, Mary Dan and baby Linda are here now and Col. Jim is on terminal leave. They will make their home at the log cabin near town, which Mary Dan plans to redecorate.

Linton Lanier, Jr., left in January for Calcutta, India, and expects to encircle the globe before returning to a home port.

Everyone's commenting on how lovely Lonie Donaldson looked as she greeted members of the Woman's Club as they arrived for the September meeting. Lonie wore a rose crepe with a charming arrangement of iridescent sequins at the neckline, making the costume more attractive were adorable matching mittens.

We commended Dot Knight this week for her splendid work in bringing to the people of Statesboro the artists' series which includes four engagements at the Georgia Teachers College—presenting select talent in various fields of art. The first attraction, the Strawbridge Ballet, was most successful from the standpoint of performance and financial receipts.

Bruce Thomas, noted war correspondent will be the next in the series. His lecture will be given Feb. 20th.

On the gossip side we hear that a most attractive blonde, a former teacher, is wearing a ring with that most significant stone on the correct finger.

Willie Groover enjoys the distinction of being the only fertilizer salesman in the state and probably in the South. She was the only woman present at their recent convention, which no doubt forestalled remodeled jokes about the salesman and the farmer's daughter, but knowing Willie as we do we can see her tactfully absenting herself at just the proper time.

And of interest to sport fans we have it on good authority that Renner Brady, Jr., Judson Lanier and Eddie Rushing, high school football stars, will be asked to try out for football at Clemson in February.

As ever,
JANE.

950 Bulloch Veterans Are Back Home

According to the latest figures Bulloch county sent 2,146 men into active duty with the armed forces of the United States. This figure included the members of the National Guard which was called to active service in 1940 and volunteers that entered the service through Army, Navy and Marine Corps recruiting offices.

Approximately 850 veterans are back in Bulloch county with their discharge certificates. 553 have had their discharge certificates recorded with the Clerk of the Superior Court here. 111 of these are colored veterans.

According to Miss Hattie Powell, deputy clerk of the court, two large books record discharge certificates of World War II veterans.

The records reveal that only 82 veterans of all previous wars have had their discharge certificates recorded. The first certificate appearing in the records was recorded on August 18, 1923, by John M. Newman.

SPANISH AMERICAN WAR VETERAN RECORDS DISCHARGE CERTIFICATE

On January 19, 1946, Ansil P. Dannelly, veteran of the Spanish American War, brought his discharge certificate to the clerk of the Superior Court to be recorded.

It is not actually his discharge certificate that he recorded. It is the certificate issued to him in lieu of the original that he lost or it was destroyed.

The record shows that Mr. Dannelly was a private in Company I, 1st Regiment of the South Carolina Volunteers. He enrolled in the army in Columbia, S. C., on May 3, 1898, and was discharged on November 10, 1898. The certificate is signed by I. S. Adams, Adjutant General.

BULLOCH COUNTY GINS
7,200 BALS OF
COTTON TO DEC. 13.

Mr. H. D. Anderson, special agent of the Department of Commerce, Bureau of the Census, announced this week that 7,308 bales of cotton were ginned in Bulloch county from the crop of 1945 prior to December 13. This compares with 11,314 bales for the crops of 1944.

GREAT DAYS

SIX YEARS AGO THEY BEGGED US TO EAT MORE PORK -- 1946?

January 31, 1940—six years ago—Statesboro and Bulloch county were not too much concerned with what went on beyond the borders of the state of Georgia. Rumbles of the war that was to come on December 7, 1941, were heard but only distantly and with no local significance. The National Guard unit here was meeting one night a week but it was not leave until November of that year.

Boys 12, 13 and 14 years old were concerned only with the local business of having a good time, birthday parties, Boy Scout meetings, football games, basketball games, and getting the family car to have a date on Friday night. It was not until 1941-1945 that they became aware of things like the Selective Service, volunteering in the Army, Navy and Marine Corps.

Sugar was still something that you had two spoonfuls of in your coffee and tea and your rationing it out to make five pounds last four months was something undreamed.

Pork was something known as a "surplus" and Bulloch county farmers today six years ago asked consumers of meat to help reduce the surplus of pork by using more of it during National Pork Week, February 1-8.

With the first issue of the Bulloch Herald since May 28, 1942, the editors look back with a feeling of nostalgia to today six years ago, January 31, 1940. When we should look forward and to the future we find that it helps to look back on the past.

It was this week in 1940 that a committee representing the Bulloch county pork raisers called on meat stores, drug stores, cafes and places that served sandwiches to feature pork and pork products during the week set aside as National Pork Week, February 1-8. Fred G. Blitch was chairman of the committee with L. F. Martin, P. F. Groover, Geo. M. Miller, Sam L. Brannen, Mrs. L. F. Martin, Mrs. C. G. Call and Miss Eunice Lester. Mr. Blitch pointed out that pork "staves" off hunger longer than any other meat, which was one reason offered that people should eat more.

One activity the years since 1940 have not affected is speeding. Then as today Mayor's court on Monday morning found speeders before the "man" to pay their fine. Mayor Cone fined six this week six years ago. But inflation has hit the speeder's pocketbook. George Lanier, E. S. Lewis, E. L. Barnes, Carl Franklin, A. L. Clifton, and Virgil Robertson paid only one dollar into the city's tills that Monday morning in 1940. Mayor Dorman now starts fines for speeding at $5 and figures up.

Top hogs on the local livestock market were bringing $5.30 to $5.40 per hundred pounds this week six years ago. The cattle market was active with good beef type cattle bringing $7.50 to $8.00.

The Rushing Hotel advertised "Special Sunday Dinners at 50 cents." And offered soup or cocktail, chef's salad, fried chicken, OR WESTERN STEAK, English peas, asparagus on toast, young turnips, steamed rice, hearts of celery, and desert, with drink. (50 cents — that's what the ad said).

The Henry Grady Hotel and the Ansley Hotel in Atlanta were carrying advertisements asking the people of Statesboro to be their guests—this was in January, 1940.

Sunday evening, January 28, 1940, Rev. N. H. Williams preached at the Methodist Church on "The Devil." Mr. Williams stated in his announcement of his subject that "this subject should be of interest to every tempted person which is but another way of saying 'everybody'." He invited everyone to attend the service. Time stands still for in 1946 we still hear "The Devil!"

And it was at the meeting of the Bulloch County Library Board held at the beginning of the New Year, 1940, that plans for a library building were studied. And it was announced that the library contained 5,000 volumes.

It was this week six years ago that Harry S. Aiken and Harvey D. Brannen formed an insurance partnership—Marble Jo Jones spoke at the Rotary Club—Mrs. H. B. Strange died—Nine social and bridge clubs met.

And so it goes—along some lines we move forward and progress — along others we stand still.

Eisenhower Praises Boy Scout Movement

The Boy Scout Movement "is a prime force in preparing tomorrow's men for their duty to themselves, their country and the world," said General of the Army Dwight D. Eisenhower, Chief of Staff of the United States Army, in a message to the Boy Scouts of America, who mark their 36th anniversary during Boy Scout Week, Feb. 8th to 14th.

General Eisenhower's tribute follows: "The Boy Scout Movement merits the unstinted support of every American who wants to make his country and his world a better place in which to live. Its emphasis on community service and tolerance and world friendship promotes a speedier attainment of the enduring peace among men for which we all strive."

"By developing among its members both a spirit of self-reliance and a realization of the need for cooperative effort in every major enterprise; the Movement is a prime force in preparing tomorrow's men for their duty to themselves, their country and the world."

"Here in the United States, the Boy Scouts of America has accomplished much in its 36 years of service. But today, more than ever before, we need expansion of its membership and influence."

ment of Georgia, Veterans of Foreign Wars of Atlanta was in Statesboro on Tuesday and Wednesday of last week and assisted in the original organization steps.

A temporary set up is in operation and an application for a charter has been made. Plans for an organization meeting and charter night will be announced.

Leodel Coleman, editor of The Bulloch Herald, has been named temporary quartermaster and will accept applications for membership at the office of The Bulloch Herald at 27 West Main Street.

William P. Deal At "Paid Out" Dinner For FSA Farmers

(See picture on front page) When the "paid-out" farmers met at the Henry Grady Hotel in Atlanta on January 18, Bulloch county was represented by William P. Deal.

The meeting was for the farmers in the Farm Ownership Program of the Farm Security Administration who purchased their farms under the Bankhead-Jones Farm Tenant Act and repaid the loan in full in from three to seven years.

The two families in Bulloch county who have "paid-out" are Ruel A. Clifton and William P. Deal.

Mr. Deal attended the Paid-Out Dinner given in honor of the nearly 122 paid out borrowers in the state. Governor Ellis Arnall was the principal speaker.

At the dinner Mr. Deal was asked to give a brief sketch of himself which was as follows: One of 15 children he had sharecropped for 15 years. He moved four times and then in 1940 purchased the farm he now owns. When he bought his place his net worth was figured about $1,512. He estimates his net worth now at $10,000. The final payment on his farm was made in November, 1945, and was $4,196. He pointed out that this money represented income from his farm and was not supplemented by wages of members of his family in war industries as was the case in some of the paid-out farmers. His chief crops are tobacco, cotton, peanuts and livestock. He has always lived on a "at-home" program. He has one son in the armed forces of the United States.

Mr. Clifton was unable to attend the dinner. A share cropper for five years he purchased his farm in 1941 and at that time his net worth was estimated at $2,051. His final payment on his place was made in September, 1945, and was $2,001.28. His net worth is estimated at $12,964. Mr. Clifton is a member of the AAA committee of the Farm Bureau.

Slow Growing Flowers Need Extra Early Start

Most annual flowers will stand transplanting, and if sown in the house, or in a greenhouse, hot-bed or cold frame, weeks before it is possible to sow them outdoors, they will begin to flower much earlier than otherwise when moved to the garden.

Asters, petunias and snapdragons especially should have this early start, because they are slow to germinate and mature. In setting out plants rather than sowing seed directly there is another advantage. Since flowers are usually planted in borders, rather than in rows, when ready to locations where they are desired. Seed boxes are easier to manage outdoors than under protection, and growth is more rapid in the garden, for plants in a seed box which can be shaded when desirable, and watered frequently, or kept constantly moist by automatic watering.

deeply, lest growth be prevented; sometimes indeed the seed is just pressed into the soil. It is important that flower seed be sown in loose soil, rich in humus, which will not become too compact, or form a crust which might prevent the seedlings from emerging. Many garden soils do not answer these specifications, but it is usually easy to find enough of the best type of soil to fill a few flower pots or seed boxes, in which seeds may be sown with assurance that they will germinate and grow well.

Because of this, gardeners often sow all flower seeds in this way, even outdoors, and move the plants when ready to locations where they are desired. Seed boxes are easier to manage outdoors than under protection, and growth is more rapid in the garden, for plants in a seed box which can be shaded when desirable, and watered frequently, or kept constantly moist by automatic watering.

On New Year's Day, 1946, the first post-war New Year in five years, the two banks published statements showing resources and liabilities totaling $7,111,669.80—an increase of $5,338,725.31.

Comparative statements of the banks show that the people of this section had $1,585,764.65 on demand deposit on December 13, 1941. The same date five years later they had on demand deposit $6,855,408.29, an increase of $5,269,643.64.

Each of the banks is operated by a president and a vice-president. In 1945, U. S. Bonds, state and municipal obligations held by the banks increased from $417,863.29 to $3,463,241.21.

VETERANS ARE URGED TO RECORD DISCHARGE CERTIFICATES

The Veteran's discharge certificate is a valuable document. It will be wise to have it recorded. To do this it should be taken to the county clerk at the court house. For a nominal fee it will be put on record. The original certificate will be returned to you and then, if you ever need a copy, you can get a certified one from that office. In the meantime keep the original in a safe place.

Smith-Tillman Buy Out Allen Lanier

January 12 the Lanier's Mortuary became the Smith-Tillman Mortuary.

J. E. "Jake" Smith, of Statesboro and E. Grant Tillman, of Register, purchased the Lanier's Mortuary from Allen R. Lanier and are now operating under the name of Smith-Tillman Mortuary.

Mr. Smith had been associated with Mr. Lanier since 1935, except for the period he was with the armed forces.

Mr. Smith, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Smith, of Port, Tenn., graduated from Port High School in 1930 and attended the Georgia Teachers College for three years. He began working with Mr. Lanier in 1935 when the business was the Statesboro Undertakers.

Mr. Johnson, recently discharged from the U. S. Marine Corps, was serving as court reporter under the late Judge T. J. Evans, when he enlisted in the Marines in June, 1942.

Mr. Johnson served aboard an attack cargo ship, being the only enlisted Marine aboard. He, together with a commissioned Marine officer, was in charge of troops and cargo. He made seven trips to the Philippines and two to Japan.

When he was discharged he was a staff sergeant.

VETERANS ARE URGED TO JOIN LOCAL POST OF AMERICAN LEGION

Hubert L. Newton, secretary of the Bulloch County Post No. 88, American Legion, urges the veterans of Bulloch county to become members of that organization. Veterans may join by paying a $3 annual fee. Mr. Newton will issue membership cards upon application at H. Minkovitz and Sons.

Mr. Grant Tillman has been with the Atlanta Casket Company, the world's largest casket manufacturer, for 23 years. He states that the Tillman in the new firm will be his two sons, Jack and E. Grant, Jr., when they return from service in the U. S. Army. They are both now in Germany.

Mr. Willie R. Lewis, former tax receiver of Evans county, Claxton, is working with Mr. Smith and Mr. Tillman. He was with Russell Tillman for two years in Claxton and was with Mr. Lanier for two years.

THE NEVILS YOUTH FELLOWSHIP

The regular meeting of the Nevils Youth Fellowship will be held Sunday night, February 3rd, at the church preceding church services. We have been having very good attendance and hope to continue with the good work.

The Library committee composed of the following members, Miss Jane Hall, Robert Cox, Edwin Lewis, Miss Maude White and Mrs. Walton NeSmith, are expecting to present plans for beginning a "church library." All members are urged to be present, visitors are invited and new members are always welcome.

EDWIN LEWIS, reporter.

THE WOMAN'S SOCIETY OF CHRISTIAN SERVICE MEETS

The regular meeting of the Nevils WSCS will meet with Mrs. Robert F. Young Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. All members are urged to be present and visitors invited.

FARM BUREAU MEETING AT NEVILS

The regular January meeting of the Nevils Farm Bureau was held in the vocational agriculture building Thursday night, January 24, when steak supper was served to more than sixty men and women.

Mr. Kelly, who is now with the county agent's office, presented his program on "Building up old terraces." He presented a demonstration by the use of moving picture slides on this work. The main feature of the evening was the health program in Bulloch county, presented by Fred W. Hodges of Statesboro. After presenting the plans for the DPT spraying of every home in the Nevils community twice during the summer for the low cost of $1.00 per spraying, it was unanimously voted for. He said this work would begin early in March.

He also told the group about the brills fever control program of spraying or dusting rats for fleas that carry the brills fever germ, and then poisoning the rats.

The entire group was very much in favor of the program, and construction immediately began, and the gym was completed with the exception of dressing and rest rooms.

This year the rest rooms are being completed. Within a year, the entire former plans will be realized. In addition to a basketball court, the gym embodies an efficient canteen plant which is equipped with a convenient room for preparing foods and an annex served with modern and efficient canteen utensils.

Beginning this year, the Register High School will sponsor an annual magazine subscription campaign, the benefits to go to the Senior Class. The Seniors will use the money for an educational trip which has been the custom of the school for several years.

The High School students have been divided into two teams, each having a Senior student as captain. The losing team will entertain the winners with an ice cream party at the end of the ten day drive.

Groover. Several members of the group volunteered to help complete the work on the canteen plant within the next few days.

The subjects for discussion at the next program in February are peanuts and sweet potato production, and disease-free seed. Mr. Groover announced. After the treasurer, Mrs. Raymond C. Hodges, received the proceeds from the supper the meeting adjourned.

Mr. Groover told the group about a chemical for blue mold control on tobacco buds, that could be bought in large quantity in associated manner. The farmers were interested in this purchase.

Mr. Groover stated that the boys in his class should be complimented for the cooperation and help they had given on the new canteen plant. The plant is nearing completion according to Mr.

That's what it said in 1899 to the veterans who came back from Cuba, Haiti and the Philippines.

Thus the V. F. W. emblem is handed down from one generation of overseas veterans to the next.

That's what it means today to the hundreds of thousands of overseas veterans of this war who are members of the V. F. W.—men who are still in the fighting areas as well as their comrades who have already returned to civilian life.

Why? Because it is the symbol of a common bond—one that unites all men who have the right to wear the campaign ribbons authorized by the United States Government.

"Americans are the best informed people in the world. America has the finest newspapers in the world. And perhaps the fact that America has the finest newspapers in the world accounts for their being the best informed people in the world."

One of the things that amazed the English people during the war was the ability of the average American soldier to express opinions on practically any question and to have an opinion on that is worthy of consideration.

America was settled by a people who had a great curiosity and who had the courage to face the unknown. The average American soldier was no exception. He was a man who was not afraid to express his opinion on practically any question and to have an opinion on that is worthy of consideration.

One of the things that amazed the English people during the war was the ability of the average American soldier to express opinions on practically any question and to have an opinion on that is worthy of consideration.

Who's Who Named At High School

Agnes Blitch, daughter of Mrs. J. D. Blitch, Jr., has been named "Miss S. H. S." in a recent edition of the Statesboro High School yearbook.

The 4-H Club members in the county feeding steers for the show this year are Billy Groover, Jerry Robbins, Harold Brannen, Rowdon Atkins, Hoke Smith, Curtis Knight, Henry Hendrix, Bobbie Knight, Roland Williams, Delas Fike, Frank Knight, and Edwin Hotchkiss. Charles Williams, P. B. Thompson, Jr., Edward Knight, Joan Martin, Deavonah Roberts, Jack A. Brannen, Franklin Crossen, Robert Martin, Paul Womack, Wilbur Smith, Bobby, Billy and Hardy Stringer.

Many of these clubsters have fed two and three years. Indications are these 54 4-H Club steers will be superior to anything shown in the past years. It will take a better steer to win the championship than ever, these boys and girls think.

Suggests Statesboro As Site For United Nations Organization Home

By Gordon "Red" Marston, of the United Nations, Boston, Mass., and former Combat Correspondent, Lendol Coleman

BOSTON—Ex-Marine Combat Correspondent Lendol Coleman is the kind of fellow who would give you the shirt off his back. That happy statement was actually never put to the test in the Pacific because shirts were seldom needed save for the sundown hour when the original B-29's—the Guadalcanal mosquitoes—made their attacks.

Radar has now contacted the moon. But radar will never be a complete success until mosquito fighters are picked up five miles off the human target.

I do know that Lendol tried to give me a shirt . . . in fact several of them. And thereby a tale of the Pacific.

Back in April, 1943, Lendol and I were standing by in San Diego, Cal., for a ship to take us to the Pacific. A switch in orders, given suddenly, forced me to leave hurriedly. The affable Lendol remained behind. The change in schedule caught me with my trousers down . . . in the laundry. Same for my shirts. The obliging Statesboro editor said he would pick up the laundry and deliver same somewhere in the Pacific. We believed we were going to the same destination.

The Marine Corps work in strange and wonderful ways. I landed at Guadalcanal. And he landed at New Zealand. How Lendol must have been tempted to throw my khaki into the Pacific! Troopships can be crowded and usually are. Lendol's ship ran into a terrible storm. His locker box was reduced to splinters but he got out with his laundry before he did for his country.

Brother Coleman eventually got to New Zealand and took tender care of the apparel. But one thing when he was away (attending a movie, he says) his living quarters caught on fire. It wasn't much of a blaze, as fires go. Yet my shirts. Thus ended the saga of the scorched shirts and kindling khaki.

Lendol and I later crossed each other's paths. We were at Bougainville together. He was a healthy specimen at the time because he had all that good New Zealand lamb. Yet my shirts. There was I tending the garden up Tulagi and New Georgia. When I was eventually transferred to another outfit, it was Lendol who took my place. It is a matter of Marine Corps record.

We had another reunion on Guam. Nothing like a reunion in a foxhole. It was then I noticed that Lendol was wearing a new pair of shirts. (Ed. note—Those shirts were burned up in New Zealand and we are sticking to our story.)

Whenever combat correspondents got together and sometimes civilian correspondents joined our circle, the talk eventually got around to Statesboro, Georgia, and the Bulloch Herald. The way Lendol painted the picture down there was not to be inaccurate, except in that shirt yarn . . . he all but started a march on the Statesboro area. We all felt we knew his brothers and the people of Statesboro. Too, the Southern fried chicken was enough to make one lose his mind. So it may well be that some day Lendol will arrive down there with appetite and thirst.

GEORGIA—THE (Continued from Page One)

It would not be fair, however, to attribute all the gains to one administration. Some of them have been gradual, over a period of years, and many public-spirited citizens are to be commended for them.

Georgia's industrial growth is noteworthy. Atlanta, for example, has been chosen as the site for new assembly plants to be constructed by the Ford Motor Company and General Motors at a cost of $12,000,000. The two plants will employ 10,000 people.

The Georgia Power Company, bringing the light of its findings in this field reports that 342 new industries have sprung up in Georgia since 1927. These industries in 1945 are valued at $24,448,000, as contrasted with $4,502,000 in 1925. Free textbooks, lunchrooms, and vocational schools have been opened by the institutions of the 20-year period. And yet, more money must be provided if our educational system is to meet the needs of the modern day. The Georgia Education Association says the annual appropriation should be $34,000,000.

More than twenty-five veterans of Statesboro and Bulloch county have joined the VFW and made the application for the charter.

Lendol Coleman, acting quartermaster, suggests that all veterans with overseas service make application for membership in the VFW so that they may take part in the institution of the VFW and have a voice in the election of officers. He pointed out, however, that if the veterans will give up the idea of coming to the meeting whether they are members of the organization or not.

He points out that this gives the exclusive companionship of men who served overseas. The VFW emblem is a mark of distinction for the soldier, sailor or marine who served in time of war, ashore or afloat, in actual danger zones and in the continental limits of the U. S.

The hopes of world peace for the next fifty years depends upon what happens in the lives of boys growing up here in America and in the countries of Europe.

The theme of the Boy Scouts of America for the year 1946 is "Scouts of the World—Building Together." Regardless of what treaties or agreements may be made by the nations of the world, in the last analysis what happens to our hopes of world peace for the next fifty years depends upon what happens in the lives of boys growing up here in America and in the countries of Europe.

If we can impress upon these boys principles of friendliness and mutual respect, we shall go a long way toward establishing a better understanding among the nations of the world.

Herein America we have nearly two million members of the Boy Scouts of America. Throughout the world there are approximately three million Scouts and Leaders.

The Scout program seeks to train these boys for service to others and to the world. With these millions of Scouts throughout the world we believe something truly magnificent can be done.

We hope to develop a body of men who, because of their Scout training, will stand out in their native lands as our Boy Scouts stand out here in America, dedicated to the same ideals of Scouting as we are.

During this week, Boy Scout Week, the committee which guides the Boy Scouts in Bulloch county wishes to thank the people of Statesboro and Bulloch county for the cooperation given in the completion of the recent drive for funds to operate on during 1946. It is because you were generous that we are able to bring Scouting to our sons.

Application may be made with Lendol Coleman, the acting quartermaster, at the office of the Bulloch Herald, at 27 West Main Street.

W. H. Blitch, known as "Jack" Blitch to Bulloch county, died at his home in Statesboro Friday night of last week. He had been in ill health for several weeks.

Jack Tarver, of Atlanta, liaison officer assigned to the National Guard Bureau, told a group of Statesboro and Bulloch county business men Thursday to begin making plans for securing a unit of the National Guard.

Colonel Cowart explained that he was making a survey of federal facilities over the state of Georgia. He said he would be using the facilities of the National Guard. He told the group that the Guard will be doubled in size, to include and increase in air units.

Alfred Dorman, mayor, stated that Bulloch county was working to secure one of the air units so that the facilities at the Statesboro air field could be used. Colonel Cowart suggested the development of the idea of an air force unit.

The plans for the National Guard are still in the formative stage. The units will be activated and equipped allocated.

Colonel Cowart has been called to Washington to a conference with the National Guard Bureau. He pledges his support in helping Statesboro secure a unit here.

Mayor Alfred Dorman announced today that the books to receive tax returns will be open tomorrow, February 1, and will remain open until April 31.

Mayor Dorman explained that the returns will be necessary that property owners give the dimensions of their property at the time the returns are made. He said that very few of the returns show these dimensions and that to make a proper valuation of the property it becomes necessary to know the size. He suggests that property owners who are not sure of the measurements of their property to check and come prepared to furnish that information when the returns are made.

V.F.W. To Have Post In Bulloch County Feb. 17

A Post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the U. S. will be instituted here on Sunday, February 17. The institution ceremonies will be held in the court house with a state official of the organization in charge. When the Post will be named and officers elected.

From July 6, 1944, until November 21, 1945, Mr. Riggs worked at Oak Ridge, Tennessee, on the project that resulted in the atomic bombing of Japan.

"I had no idea of what I was doing until the newspapers said that the atomic bomb had been dropped on Japan," said Mr. Riggs.

Recently Mr. Riggs received a certificate from Mr. Henry L. Stimson, secretary of war, for the part he played in the production of the atomic bomb.

"I had no idea of what I was doing until the newspapers said that the atomic bomb had been dropped on Japan," said Mr. Riggs.

Of this amount $263,500 was for new business buildings and $13,790 for new homes. $13,198 was spent on remodeling and repairing business buildings and $10,247 for remodeling and repairing home buildings. Permits for miscellaneous buildings, outhouses, barns, stables, amounted to only $2,765.

A study of the records of the permits issued by the city show that from June 14, 1943, to January 1, 1946, only three permits for new business buildings were issued totaling $7,600, including the F. A. Smallwood building on Vine Street and the Walter and Mrs. J. N. Norton, of Conway, South Carolina. One son was the pilot, the other the copilot. The other copilot was killed.
